The most asked questions...

- What is the Chamber of Commerce?

A private, non-profit, pro-active enterprise member organization. We are the leading business-enterprise advocate in Greater Charlottesville. The Chamber is “dedicated to representing private enterprise, promoting business and enhancing the quality of life in our Greater Charlottesville communities.”

- Who runs it and when does it meet?

The Chamber Board of Directors, representing the membership, sets the strategic direction. A professional staff under the president assists the Board in implementing policy and activities with the help of committees composed of Chamber members.

- Why is my membership important

The stronger our Chamber, the more we can do for our members and community. As a corporate citizen, your membership shows that you actively promote the economic vitality of our region.
